

Data Retention Policy

AccuSourceHR retains background screening report information for three (3) years from the date on which the screening report is completed, unless otherwise required or prohibited by applicable laws or as otherwise required by client contract. After such time has expired, the background screening report information will be purged from AccuSourceHR's system.